Civil Action No. 19-cv-12807

DECLARATION OF CATHERINE MERINO REISMAN
IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES
FOR REISMAN CAROLLA GRAN & ZUBA LLP

I, Catherine Merino Reisman, hereby declare:

1. This declaration is based upon my personal knowledge. If called to testify, I could testify competently to the facts set forth in this declaration.

2. I am an attorney at law, admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania since 1989, the State of New Jersey since 2001, and the State of New York since 2018.

3. I am also admitted in the United States Supreme Court, United States Courts of Appeal for the Third, Second, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits, and the following United States District Courts: District of New Jersey, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Middle District of Pennsylvania, Southern District of New York, Eastern District of New York, Northern District of New York, District of Connecticut, Southern District of Texas, and Western District of Tennessee.

4. I am a founding partner of Reisman Carolla Gran & Zuba LLP in Haddonfield, New Jersey.

5. I am a 1989 graduate of Yale Law School, where I served as a Note Editor on the Yale Law Journal, a founding member of the Yale Journal of Law and Feminism, and director of the Labor Law Project and Student-Funded Fellowships. I am a 1985 magna cum laude graduate of New York University.

6. I clerked for the Honorable Edward N. Cahn, Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania from 1990 to 1991. From 1991 to 1999, I was an Associate at Willig, Williams & Davidson in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where my practice concentrated on civil rights and employment discrimination matters. From 1999 to 2001, I practiced part-time, working for myself. In 2001, I joined Montgomery McCracken Walker & Rhoads, LLP in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

7. I began practicing in the area of special education law in 1999. As an Of Counsel attorney at Montgomery McCracken, I co-chaired the Special Education practice group with one of one my current law firm partners, Amelia Carolla.

8. In 2008, Ms. Carolla and I launched Reisman Carolla LLP, which is now Reisman Carolla Gran & Zuba LLP, where more than 90% of my practice has been in the area of representing individuals with disabilities in cases related to education and civil rights.

9. Since 1999, I have represented dozens of children with disabilities and their families in education law and civil rights matters involving school districts throughout New Jersey, as well as in Southeastern and Central Pennsylvania, and in other states. In connection with my representation of families, I have attended Individualized Education Program meetings, negotiated settlements with school districts, written and filed complaints for Due Process Hearings with New Jersey's Office of Administrative Law and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Office for Dispute Resolution, and participated in federal court litigation and appeals. I have appeared both in state due process hearings and in federal court, including the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Middle Districts of Pennsylvania, the District of New Jersey, the District of Nevada, the District of Connecticut, the Southern District of Texas, the District of Massachusetts, and the District of Nevada and the United States Courts of Appeals for the Third and Fifth Circuits. Some representative cases are: Sch. Dist. of Phila. v. Kirsch, 722 F. App'x 215 (3d Cir. 2018); J.F., et al. v. S. Orange Maplewood Bd. of Educ., No. 19-2629 (3d Cir.); *Lauren W. v. 10. I am active in the Council of Parent Attorneys and Advocates (COPAA), www.copaa.org, a national non-profit 501(c)(3) organization of attorneys, advocates, and parents dedicated to protecting the special education and civil rights of children with disabilities throughout the United States. I was a member of the COPAA Board of Directors from 2008-2021. From 2011-2012, I was Chair of the COPAA Board, from 2010-2011, I was Vice Chair, and from 2009-2010, I was Treasurer.

11. I have represented COPAA as an amicus curiae in the Supreme Court in Perez v. Sturgis Pub. Schs., 143 S. Ct. 859 (2023); Andrew F. v. Douglas County

Sch. Dist. RE-1, 580 U.S. 386 (2017); Fry v. Napoleon Community Sch., 580 U.S. 154 (2017); and CVS Pharmacy, Inc. v. Doe, No. 20-1374 (2021). 12. I speak regularly to groups of parents and attorneys regarding special education and the civil rights of individuals with disabilities. With the exception of 2021, I have presented at the COPAA national conference every year since 2008. I present annually for COPAA's new attorney training program. These presentations included the following topics: Section 504 and the ADA, litigating federal court special education appeals, transition planning under IDEA, legal issues relating to harassment and bullying, cross-examination of expert witnesses, planning direct and cross-examination in special education hearings, the impact of Endrew F. on litigation of special education cases, and exhaustion issues after Fry v. Napoleon and Perez v. Sturgis Public Schools. I have presented at the Lehigh Special Education Conference, the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Exceptional Children's Conference, New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education, and to parent groups on extended school year and day services, charter schools and IDEA responsibilities, related services available under IDEA, rights under IDEA and Section 504/ADA, and persistent school non-attendance issues.

13. Judith A. Gran was admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1983. She has also been admitted to practice in the United States Courts of Appeals for the Third, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth Circuits, Tenth and Eleventh Circuits, the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, the Middle District of Pennsylvania, the Southern District of Texas, and the Western District of Tennessee.

She has practiced pro hac vice in a number of other jurisdictions, including representing numerous families in the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law and the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. She has also been admitted pro hac vice in numerous district courts, including the District of Connecticut, the District of Minnesota, the District of Montana, the District of Northern Illinois, the District of Northern California, the Middle District of Tennessee, the Northern District of Virginia, the Northern District of Oklahoma, the District of New Mexico, the Eastern District of Missouri and the Northern District of Oklahoma.

14. Ms. Gran graduated cum laude from Temple Law School in 1983. She served on the staff of the Temple Law Quarterly. She has a master's degree from the University of Chicago in Political Science and a bachelor of arts degree, with honors, from Wellesley College. She specializes in litigation on behalf of children and adults with disabilities, including the area of special education.

15. Before joining Reisman Carolla Gran & Zuba LLP, Ms. Gran was a staff attorney at the Public Interest Law Center of Philadelphia (PILCOP), where she served as Director of Disability Projects. She has practiced disability rights law for more than 38 years.

16. Ms. Gran has represented hundreds of special education students in administrative and judicial proceedings in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and other states, including Virginia, West Virginia, Minnesota, Missouri, Oklahoma, Colorado and Tennessee. She served as lead counsel in the class action suit Gaskin v. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, No. 94-4048 (E.D. Pa.), a case brought to enforce the least restrictive environment mandate of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act that resulted in a settlement agreement implemented throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. She has conducted class action litigation to obtain community services for institutionalized persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Montana, California, Illinois and Tennessee. She served as counsel for the Arc of Pennsylvania and the plaintiff class during the implementation phase of the consent decree in Halderman v. Pennhurst, No. 74-1345, from 1984 to 1998. In each of these cases, she had responsibility for all aspects of litigation, including drafting pleadings, conducting discovery, trial, post-trial proceedings and enforcement, and appeals.

17. She was one of the founding members of COPAA. She served on the COPAA national board from 1998 to 2009 and served as its chair for two terms, from 2002 to 2004. She received COPAA's highest award, the Diane Lipton Award for Outstanding Educational Advocacy, in 2009. She has presented a plenary session on the year's decisions in the Courts of Appeals at every one of COPAA's annual conferences since 1999. She presents regularly to parents, attorneys, professionals and others at conferences and Continuing Legal Education events.

18. In 2023, Reisman Carolla Gran & Zuba’s customary billing rates, based on current community market rates, were:

Judith A. Gran (J.D. 1983)	$ 610
Catherine Merino Reisman (J.D. 1989)	$ 585
Amelia Carolla (J.D. 1995)	$ 540
Sarah E. Zuba (J.D. 2002)	$ 475

19. In 2024, Reisman Carolla Gran & Zuba’s customary billing rates, based on current community market rates, are:

Judith A. Gran (J.D. 1983)	$ 630
Catherine Merino Reisman (J.D. 1989)	$ 600
Amelia Carolla (J.D. 1995)	$ 560
Sarah E. Zuba (J.D. 2002)	$ 500

20. In K.N. v. Gloucester City Bd. of Educ., No. 17-7976, 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 36492 (D.N.J. March 1, 2022), this Court found that my 2021 hourly rate of $ 545 per hour was a reasonable rate for the relevant legal market, the Philadelphia Metropolitan Area. Id. at *6 & n.3. The Court also held that a 4-5% annual increase in rates is appropriate. Id. at *8. My 2023 rate of $ 585 per hour is consistent with a 4% annual increase from my 2021 rate approved in K.N.

21. In 2022, Judge Kearney of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania approved an hourly rate of $ 590 for Ms. Gran and $ 565 for me for work performed in 2022. (The school district did not contest the reasonableness of those hourly rates.) See Cent. Bucks Sch. Dist. v. Q.M., No. 22-1128, 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 215318 (E.D. Pa. 2022). Our current billing rates are consistent with a 4% annual increase of the rates approved in Q.M. The rates for myself and Ms. Gran are also consistent with a 4% annual increase from 2020 rates approved by the Court in E.H. v. Wissahickon Sch. Dist., No. 2:19-cv-05445, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 199469, at *11 (E.D. Pa. Oct. 27, 2020): $ 525 for me and $ 550 for Ms. Gran.

22. During this litigation, RCGZ timekeepers kept contemporaneous records in our practice management system documenting professional time spent and out-of-pocket costs incurred. The billing reports attached to this Declaration were created by exporting the information maintained in our practice management system.

23. The billing reports for my time through are attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Although my billing rate increased to $ 600 per hour for 2024, we have used the rate of $ 585 per hour that was used during the settlement negotiations. During this representation, through

February 29, 2024, I billed a total of 1354 hours, broken down by month and year, as follows:

The billing report reflects a total of $ 792,495.00 because it has the $ 600 hourly rate for January and February 2024. For purposes of the fee petition, we are using the 2023 hourly rate, so the total for my time is $ 792,090.00.

24. Ms. Gran’s billing reports are attached as Exhibit 2. Although her billing rate increased to $ 630 per hour for 2024, we have used the rate of $ 610 per hour that was used during the settlement negotiations and that is the rate for purpose of this fee petition. She billed a total of 77.1 hours, broken down by month and year as follows:

MONTH & YEAR	RATE	HOURS	TOTAL
April 2020	610	.8	488.00
June 2020	610	1.3	793.00
September 2020	610	.7	427.00
